| DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE | |
| The Old McCubbin house stands on part of a 17th century grant called "Brampton". The house may have been built in the early part of the 18th century. The original part of the building is brick, with solid, 16" thick walls. It has two stories, is one room deep and two rooms long with a center entrance and hall. There is a massive, exterior brick chimney at each end. Several major alterations were made in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. A porch and two frame additions obscure part of the structure and the interior has been renovated. Nonetheless some interesting details are still apparent. The exterior brick work is very irregular; the bricks vary in size and there is no consistent bonding. There are marks indicating where openings have been changed or blocked up. A belt course, three bricks wide, surrounds the building between the first and second floors. The window placement is irregular. The house faces south with the A-roof running east-west. The room at the east side of the hall has a large hearth and fireplace with a wooden lintel. There is an oven in the north corner which is revealed by a protrusion from the chimney on the outside. The fireplace has been made smaller and covered with a conventional wooden mantel. The partition between this room and the hall is a narrow, stud wall. On the other side of the hall is a much thicker masonry wall. The stair, door moldings, plaster work and mantels all appear to be 19th century work. The narrow stud wall may also date from a later time. The frame additions double the size of the house. The rear wing, sheathed in asbestos shingle, was built in the 1930's. The smaller wing on the west end of the main house has wood siding, contains a modern kitchen and was probably built late in the 19th century when much of the interior work was done. Near the house is a hollow that was once a pond. According to the owner there is a small graveyard in the woods near the house. | |
